

Walters' Weekly Word

Daily Dose of Duke

Math

We are still learning about shapes. It has been fun! We have learned to log onto Math Fact Pro and are really working at learning our addition facts. Prodigy has been fun as well! Remember: you can play these at home as well!

Reading

We have learned about the short 'i' sound, possessive nouns, and storms! Remember to keep studying spelling: tests will always be on Fridays!
